New Diplomatic Situation Makes New York Stocks "Limp."

CRUCIBLE STEEL REACTS

Experts Say Slow Sessions Now Are Forerunners of Big Movements at Better Prices.

Neew York, Sept. 7.-The public which October. has been holding the stock market bit in its teeth, today decided the pace was a trifle too swift on account of the latest diplomatic tangle with Germany. Trading was the limpost in days and at the close the market was the dullest in some days. Crucible Steel was run up from 87 1-2 to SS, reacting a few moments before the close to 84 1-2. General Motors, which hung about 247 most of the day, sold just before 3 o'clock at 250, eight points up from Saturday's final. Opening quotations were fractionally lower, recovering in the second hour early losses and gaining a point or so. Around noon the ticker type became listless. Railway issues were prominent at high-er levels, especially the coalers on reports of huge soft and hard coal traffic to tidewater for export. The industrials kept within a narrow price range. Motor stocks advanced and strictly war is-sues were less active with reasonable

According to one expert the present comparatively dull sessions are forerunneres of a bigger and broader movement at better prices than in August and July. Reading ran second in activity to Steel Current hard coal shipments are small and to regular customers such as Canada and Central America. PERSONALS. WORKINGMEN-AND THIS IS AS IT SHOULD be, the growing trade we have must be due to the great value that is here every day in slightly used suits at $5 to $10. There are none to touch us and the new pants at $1,50 to $3.00 is a well known raine. One price. JUSTH'S OLD STAND, 619 D. WORKINGMEN-THANK YOUR LUCK that you can now find a store where your cash will buy so much value and maybe more; anyway, you should see the slightly used suit at $5; get on to it. One price. JUSTH'S OLD STAND, 619 D.
